To assist safe installations, comply with the following:

A. Use caution when installing or modifying telecommunications circuits.

B. Never touch uninsulated wire terminals unless the circuit has been disconnected.

C. Never install this device in a wet location.

D. Never install wiring during a lightning storm.